

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

Friday, 3 June 2016 - Concourse, Bangsar Village II

11.00am - 11.30am : Yusof Gajah's Elephants! - Storytime with Yusof Gajah

Artist, author, illustrator, teacher and curator Yusof Gajah simply loves elephants in all shapes, sizes and forms! Red ones, blue ones, green ones, big ones, little ones, hairy ones...Join him and he will tell you and show you why elephants are so much fun.

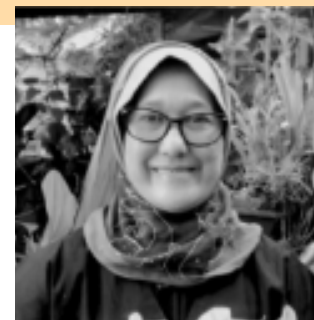

Yusof Gajah has a deep and abiding love for children's books and working with children. While a busy artist, he has managed to write and illustrate a number of books for children and have won the National Book Council Award for best picture book and the Noma Concours (ACCU) award for best illustrations. His popular picture book, 'The Real Elephant' was first published in Malay and has been translated into Japanese. Its enduring qualities have enabled an English publication in 2010. He has also created the 'ELEPHABET' which continues to attract both children and adults.

11.30am - 12.30pm : Batik Painting - Craft time with Zakiah Mohd Isa

Batik painter and instructor Zakiah Mohd Isa will show you how to create and paint your own beautiful batik drawing. Choose the batik drawing you like and start painting your masterpiece.

Zakiah Mohd Isa is a batik painter and instructor. Using the designs of her husband, Yusof Gajah, she has painted and sewn banners, clothes, bags, scarves and more using the batik method.

FREE ADMISSION for Storytime session on first come, first served basis. Registration is required at the venue on day of event for the Craft session. A fee of RM25 to RM40 per pax will be payable depending on the size of the batik piece chosen by the participant.
